NOT MUCH VERNON AID LIKELY FOR KELOWNA AIRPORT WORK

Kelowna shouldn't expect too much Vernon help in any extension of Ellison Field.

Vernon Mayor Bruce Cousins told Kelowna Chamber of Commerce his city, although it has halted plans to build a municipal airport, will develop facilities at its small-craft base at the north end of Okanagan Lake.

He said Vernon wasn't in a financial position to aid Kelowna at the moment.

"Less than three per cent of our ratepayers would favor a referendum to build a Vernon airport. It is definitely our intention to analyze the situation and negotiate with others as far as our existing airport is concerned. It is the logical point for small craft landings," the mayor commented.

Douks Show No Signs Of Quitting New Home

HOPE, B.C. (CP) — It's nearly four weeks since more than 1,000 Sons of Freedom Doukhobors arrived here for a two-day stopover on their trek from the interior.

And they're showing no sign of leaving.

Some of the Freedomites have taken jobs picking corn in the Chilliwack area 25 miles west of here. Growers have been unable to use picking machines because of damage caused by Typhoon Freda when she hit southwest British Columbia Oct. 13.

About 120 Freedomite children are still attending elementary and secondary schools in Hope.

The Sons are apparently waiting for the result of a Supreme Court hearing in Vancouver Nov. 7 before deciding on their next move.

Attorney-General Robert Bonner has challenged the validity of an emergency bylaw which bans the Freedomites from adjacent Kent municipality. A federal prison in Kent which holds more than 60 Freedomite terrorists is the destination of the Doukhobor trek.

Kent has obtained an injunction keeping the Freedomites out pending a court test of the bylaw.

Peace Groups Ask For Summit Call

VANCOUVER (CP) — Eight local peace groups have joined in a call for Prime Minister Diefenbaker to convene a summit meeting in Ottawa immediately.

Mac Urges: Back U.S.

LONDON (Reuters) — Prime Minister Macmillan called on the West today to stand firm behind the United States over the Cuban crisis while leaving every way open for a Russian retreat.

He told the House of Commons the crisis must be resolved "without a form of appeasement which will lead us into greater danger."

"There must be no break or wavering among the allies," he said, saying he was sought by the Russians as the main goal of their foreign policy.

Five US Steel Leaders Fined On Price Fixing

NEW YORK (AP) — Five American steel corporation executives were fined a total of $44,000 today on their pleas of no contest to charges of conspiracy to fix prices and rig bids in steel sales.

Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan refused simultaneously to accept like pleas from four steel companies and a trade association named defendants in the same indictment.

The individuals and their fines:

Homer Lackey, president of Erie Forge and Steel Corp., Erie, Pa., $5,000.

Emil Lang, board chairman of Erie Forge and Steel, $10,000.

R. B. Heppenstall, Sr., president of Midvale - Heppenstall Company, Philadelphia, $20,000.

Erb Gurney, manager of Bethlehem Steel Company's sales, forgings, castings and special products division, Bethlehem, Pa., $7,500.

Wigwam Inn 'Spying' Told By Witness

VANCOUVER (CP) — A telephone tap was used to watch for police boats during a wide-open bootlegging and gambling operation at Wigwam Inn, one of two men charged with bribery and conspiracy testified Wednesday.

William Foulger Robertson told an Assize Court jury of 11 men and one woman he felt that if the operation were discovered by police, his penalty would be a fine.

"As long as it is a fine it's not the end of the world," he said.

Robertson and lawyer Rockmill (Rocky) Myers, 30, are charged with eight counts of bribing and conspiring to bribe RCMP corporal Jack MacDonald.

The Crown alleges MacDonald was paid $1,000 to tip off operators of the Wigwam Inn casino when police raids were planned. Both accused have denied the charge.

Summing up by counsel began today and the case is expected to go to the jury Friday.

Steinbeck Wins Nobel Prize

STOCKHOLM (AP) — John Steinbeck, best-selling American novelist for nearly 30 years and author of The Grapes of Wrath, today won the 1962 Nobel Prize for literature.

The 60-year-old chronicler of social injustice in the United States was the sixth American to win the "rich literary prize," amounting this year to 257,219 Swedish crowns, or $49,686.

Cuba-Bound Soviet Ship Intercepted By US Navy

OKANAGAN SUN NOT EVEN NEEDED

Near-record bunch of grapes was grown in P. 'Cap' Capozzi's backyard — without the benefit of sunlight. The bunch weighs three-and-a-half pounds and is seen here getting the treatment by Courier staffer Karen Stratford and 'Cap' of Calona Wines. Addition to the Calona Wines premises was marked yesterday when local residents, including Courier staff, went on a tasting and sightseeing tour of the winery.

RCAF Placed on Alert To Support US in Crisis

OTTAWA (CP) — Prime Minister Diefenbaker said today RCAF Air Defence Command has been placed on the same alert status as American interceptors in North American Air Defence Command.

He informed the Commons of precautions the government has taken "at this stage" so that Canada can support the U.S. and its other allies in the current situation.

Other measures include:

1. No long leaves for armed forces personnel at this time.

2. Civilian departments instructed to bring up to date measures which would be required in an emergency.

3. The Emergency Measures Organization — federal, provincial and municipal — told to be on the alert.

SEES MENACE

Mr. Diefenbaker said the Soviet Union has reached out across the Atlantic to challenge the right of free men in the western hemisphere. Soviet missiles and bombers in Cuba posed a "direct and immediate menace" to Canada.

They were also a menace to the West's strategic strength. The threat was posed not only to North America but to NATO as a whole and to all the free world, which depended on U.S. strategic strength for protection.

There was a round of applause from all quarters of the Commons when the prime minister said: "We intend to support the U.S. and our other allies in this situation."

Canadians, as in the First and Second World Wars, stood by their allies and their undertakings.

Mr. Diefenbaker said the government will do everything possible to seek solutions without war. It would avoid provocative action so as to help reduce tension.

Mr. Diefenbaker noted that the government had already announced that Soviet bloc aircraft en route to Cuba would not be permitted passage over Canada. This would ensure that Canadian air space was not being used to carry Soviet arms to Cuba.

Chiang Set For Return

TAIPEI, Formosa (Reuters) — President Chiang Kai-shek said today the Nationalist Chinese government will launch a military offensive against the Chinese mainland "within the shortest period of time."

LATE FLASHES

B.C. Labor Set To Fight Company

No Showdown Signs Yet As Vessels Turn Back

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Cuban-bound Russian tanker was intercepted but was allowed to proceed, the defence department announced today.

The department also said that at least a dozen Russian ships apparently have turned back from their original course to Cuba, presumably because they were carrying offensive weapons and would run the risk of the U.S. arms blockade.

Arthur Sylvester, assistant defence secretary read this announcement.

"It now appears that at least a dozen Soviet vessels have turned back, presumably because, according to the best of our information, they might have been carrying offensive materials."

"However, the first Russian ship that proceeded through the area patrolled by our naval forces was a Soviet tanker."

CARRIED PETROLEUM

"It was ascertained by the U.S. naval vessel which intercepted her that the tanker had only petroleum aboard."

"Since petroleum is not presently included as prohibited material, under President Kennedy's proclamation setting up the quarantine, the tanker was allowed to proceed."

"The navy satisfied itself that no prohibited material was aboard this particular ship."

The Pentagon announcement came after a similar report from representative James Van Zandt (Rep. Pa.), who attended a state department regional briefing in New York for U.S. congressmen and governors of 11 northeastern states.

STILL NO SHOWDOWN

"Thus there still was no U.S. Soviet showdown on the blockade front, as anxious diplomats sought a peaceful way out of the war-threatening emergency."

President Kennedy was reported holding the door open for a summit meeting with Premier Khrushchev if the right conditions developed. But he also was said to be sticking to his overriding objective of eliminating Soviet missile bases in Cuba.

The president was reported today ready to tell U. Thant, acting secretary-general of the United Nations, that he could accept the UN officials' plea for a two-week freeze on the Cuban blockade only under certain conditions.

CUBAN BRIEFS

Papal Plea

VATICAN CITY (Reuters) — The Pope today called on all rulers to "do everything in their power to save peace."

Polish Ship May Be Sent To Challenge US Navy

WASHINGTON (CP) — A highly-qualified U.S. informant said today a Polish freighter is approaching the American naval blockade around Cuba and Soviet Premier Khrushchev may be planning to have this vessel put up the first Communist challenge to the U.S. Navy.

The informant said that while Communist ships averted a showdown by altering their course Wednesday, a number of Red freighters still maintained their course towards Cuba.

Leading this group is the Polish ship, he said, and on the basis of its present speed and position, it may be confronted by the blockade later today — perhaps in the afternoon.

MAY FORCE U.S.

The American informant speculated it may be Khrushchev's intention to force the U.S. to sink this Polish vessel — which may be carrying nothing more than food — and thus cause a possible Polish reaction of bitterness against the U.S.

13 On Counterfeit Bonds Charges

NEWARK, N.H. (AP) — The Federal Bureau of Investigation announced today the indictment of 13 persons in connection with the printing of $2,500,000 in counterfeit bonds.

Nehru Warns Congress Of Big Chinese Build-Up

NEW DELHI (Reuters) — Prime Minister Nehru today warned Communist China has massed nearly 30,000 troops along India's northeast frontier, amid reports of heavy fighting near the key frontier town of Tawang.

He told executives of his ruling Congress party the "massive invasion" of India has made the nation realize it had been "out of touch with reality" over the frontier dispute.

But he told the party leaders not to be despondent about Indian reverses in the fighting and called for a defence buildup.

"We have suffered a severe shock," he said. "We were living in an artificial atmosphere of our own creation and we have been shocked out of it—all of us, the government and the people."

"No Indian will ever agree to surrender to invasion. The country has no alternative but to increase the military effort to meet invasion."

ATTACK BORDER POINT

An Indian defence ministry spokesman said a strong Indian garrison in Tawang was putting up strong resistance to a two-pronged Chinese attack that had penetrated about 12 miles into Indian territory.

He said Chinese forces were believed to be within shelling distance of the town.

Military observers believe the Chinese objective is to seize Tawang in a pincer movement and then take Sela Ridge to the

Toronto Gets Taste Of Winter

TORONTO (CP) — Ontario residents who got a taste of winter Wednesday were in for a good slug of it today.

The weather office at Toronto issued a special warning of snow and hazardous driving throughout most parts of Southern Ontario.

The warning said a storm moving southeast from Michigan would add to the frequency and intensity of snowflurries already occurring over the Great Lakes.

New Retreat By Indians

NEW DELHI (Reuters) — Indian troops have withdrawn from Tawang, main administrative headquarters in the disputed northeast frontier region, after bitter fighting with Chinese troops. It was announced today.

A defence ministry spokesman said the withdrawal took place according to plan Wednesday after fighting in the outskirts of the town which is near the junction of the Indian, Tibetan and Bhutan borders.

Austerity To Pay Off

MONTREAL (CP) — A prominent U.S. economist predicted Wednesday night that Canada's austerity program will bring her foreign exchange reserves up to normal levels by the end of 1962.

Dr. Seymour E. Harris of Harvard University said Canada must become more competitive if she wishes to avoid another financial crisis like the one that drained more than $1,000,000,000 of foreign exchange reserves in the six months up to June of this year.

Dr. Harris, also a senior consultant to the U.S. secretary of the treasury, was giving the opening address at a McGill University conference on world affairs.

Mercy Flight For Boy Baby

VANCOUVER (CP) — A baby boy, born 2 1/2 months prematurely, was flown from Terrace to Vancouver Wednesday by an RCAF aircraft with a medical team aboard.

The baby, one of a set of twins born to Mr. and Mrs. James Cox of Terrace, weighed 2 1/2 pounds at birth Wednesday morning. The other baby did not survive.

The medical team included Terrace physician Dr. R. B. Hicks, a nurse and a medical assistant.

A hospital spokesman said the baby is in satisfactory condition. The mother remained in hospital in Terrace.

Mr. K May Try To Avert Head-On Crash With US

MOSCOW (AP) — Some Western diplomats saw Premier Khrushchev's proposal for a summit conference today as evidence he is guiding the Soviet Union on a cautious course in the Cuban crisis.

They expressed a belief that his suggestion indicates he wants to avert a head-on collision with the United States.

In a message Wednesday to Lord Russell, the British philosopher, Khrushchev put the summit proposal this way:

"The question of war and peace is so vital that we should consider useful a top-level meeting in order to discuss all problems which have arisen, to do everything possible to remove the danger of unleashing a thermonuclear war."

While denouncing the U.S. blockade of arms shipments to Cuba as "practical," Khrushchev ignored the reason President Kennedy announced for the Cuban quarantine — the establishment of Soviet-built missile bases in Cuba.

Moscow insists all arms sent to Cuba are defensive. And it never has admitted missiles are among the weapons. But per-

Floating Exchange Rate Again Sought By CLC

OTTAWA (CP) — A return to a floating exchange rate was sought today by the Canadian Labor Congress party to make it easier for the government to adopt expansionary policies.

The CLC said it fears that the present fixed exchange rate may produce domestic policies adjusted to meet balance-of-payments requirements — policies which at the same time may actually add to unemployment and low growth rates.

In its submission to the royal commission on banking and finance, the 1,000,000-member congress said the royal commission should recommend after careful study what policy Canada should have toward the various plans already advocated for greater international liquidity, which the CLC regards as inadequate.

The congress said it was calling for planned, long-term sustained expansion of "social capital."

PLEA FOR NEW NATIONS

Publisher Urges Fellows To Develop 'Good' News

NEW YORK (CP) — Roy Thomson today urged United States publishers to invest their technical knowledge and their money in assuring to new nations "an opportunity to develop in the atmosphere of honest, truthful and factual news."

Speaking to the annual meeting of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, the Canadian publisher offered the awakening of national consciousness in millions of formerly backward peoples as a reason for recent expansion of his own operations.

In addition to its interests in Canada, Britain, the United States and Australia, the Thomson organization now operates newspapers in Africa, Asia and the West Indies.

"We regard it as our responsibility to pass on our knowledge to these matters as part of the great surge forward of technical development now taking place," he said. "If, as is the case, the Western world is more advanced in its development of the media of mass communications than Africa or Asia, this only underlines the need for us

Bilingual Commons Sought

OTTAWA (CP) — The Quebec Social Credit delegation is leading a crusade for bilingualism in the House of Commons.

However, it appears to be "one-way street" bilingualism in some cases.

One Social Credit MP who preferred not to be identified said "English-speaking should learn French and become bilingual, but as for myself, I am not going to learn English."

Other Social Credit MPs from Quebec have expressed similar sentiments.

The language barrier appears to be playing a role in the considerable number of Social Credit questions declared out of order by House Speaker Marcel Lambert.

In other cases, Social Credit MPs who cannot speak English have been prevented from participating in the parliamentary fraternity among MPs above lines.

RUTLAND SCOUTS MEETING NEW ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT

Four Rutland Queen Scouts welcome H. C. Mitchell, executive, as president of the Boy Scouts Association, Central Okanagan District, at the annual meeting last night. ## THANK HEAVENS HUNTERS AREN'T ALL LIKE THIS

OYAMA — There's a reason why some farmers won't allow hunters on their property. This week an unknown nimrod killed a white-faced calf on the C. Gallacher range at the south-east end of Oyama, and left the animal to die. The animal, running with its mother, was among a herd of 30 cattle, hardly a target which could be mistaken for a deer. It died of shotgun wounds to the head several days before the accident was discovered.

MUSICALLY SPEAKING

With BETHEL STEELE

Overture Concerts Committee is pleased to announce a membership of 611 for the 1962-63 concert season. This number includes those under the family plan of which there are 17 leaving 594 paid members.

This year's executive is to be congratulated since last year's membership did not come anywhere near 500.

Tickets will be in the mail very shortly as the first concert is Nov. 5 with mezzo-soprano Betty Allen the artist.

The Kelowna High Schools' Band Association wishes to draw the attention of the public to its annual meeting to be held in the band room of the Kelowna high school Monday evening, October 29.

A large turnout is requested as extra committees are needed to handle the expanding demands on this very important organization.

A women's committee is necessary for the care of uniforms also a special group to help with fund raising.

Interested parents are assured there will be something to do. Their attendance will not be just a token effort.

The Okanagan Valley Musical Festival syllabus for 1963 is now out and in the hands of valley teachers. Copies are procurable at all music stores and from committee members.

In a statement to this column the Kelowna committee draws special attention to a new feature of the 1963 festival, to be held in Kelowna, which is the institution of two $150 scholarships.

Because the amounts involved are much larger than in the past, it is felt that these scholarships will be of great benefit to serious students of piano and dancing in the senior bracket. Consequently, conditions are exacting and demand a high standard of performance.

Added to the usual demands is compulsory sight playing for piano and a compulsory quick study for dancing.

The committee hopes to extend these scholarships to include vocal and speech arts for which sight singing and sight reading will be demanded.

Anyone interested in helping with the scholarship fund is asked to contact Mrs. Allan Moss, local festival secretary.

From the standpoint of standards our valley festival has grown up. All too often young people, studying an instrument, singing, speech arts or dancing, are taught in a parrot-like manner. They are not taught the "grammar" of their art from the beginning. In other words, the basic technical demands are not met.

We hear the complaint of parents that—"my child has taken piano for years and cannot read music!" Sight reading is the most important fundamental basic in all the performing arts, and should be demanded for their children by all parents from all teachers. If it is part of every lesson children will be able to read and enjoy their music all their lives. And if a comprehensive understanding of all basic techniques is demanded and taught in the other arts, more children will carry their art forward into adult life instead of dropping out at the end of the first few years of study.

For a change, the arts represents the place where teaching methods should be changed for the benefit of the ordinary child with but small talents. Not every child is fated to become a virtuoso, a Melba, a ballerina or a great actor. But every child has a right to learn to perform capably, with understanding, dance with grace, or read his language with understanding and vocal beauty.

The cream will always come to the top. They can then go on to artistic perfection.

Scouts Elect Officers, Hear Of World Crisis

H. C. Mitchell was elected president of the Boy Scouts Association, Central Okanagan District, at the annual meeting last night at the Capri Motor Inn. Other officers include William Cleaver and Ernie Pearce, vice-presidents; Grant Hinchey, treasurer; James Stewart, John Frederick, Gen. Grant, Fred Alcock, John Russell, Gerry Elliott, R. B. McKay, Harry Cretin, Robert Ostepchuck, and Leroy Jensen. Press, radio and television were thanked for past co-operation by the incoming president. Rev. Gilbert Egerton Mitchell of Penticton, main speaker of the evening, discussed the world situation in the Caribbean. He said that he paid tribute to the British influence as responsible for the true democracy practiced in that part of the world. He said that he felt that the best influence for good in the world today was the past benevolence and continuing inspiration of the British Empire—now the Commonwealth of Nations. Scouting has done "much to foster the good fellowship so desperately needed," he said. Phil Stirling of Vernon entertained the 125 group with a magic show, and music was presented by Roy Stolz and Ron Ritchey.

The Week At Immaculata Was A Jabberwocky Affair

By SHERRY BAKER
It was a jabberwocky week and we tumbled through it, rooting for more subscription forms, and what homework do we have, and oh, no! that locker cannot be messy again!

WILL CAST PLAY

University of B.C. theatre supervisor for the Department of Extension, Sydney Risk, will be casting the forthcoming Kelowna Little Theatre play "The Matchmaker" on Monday, Oct. 29 at 7:30 at the KLT building. Mr. Risk, former UBC student and MA in theatre from Cornell University, spent six years in professional theatre in England and was, for five years, drama supervisor for the University of Alberta. In 1960-61 he toured the world, surveying theatre under the sponsorship of the Canadian Council. Those interested in KLT are asked to attend the casting on Monday night.

Basketball

Basketball, blushing a little, and knock-kneed, made its debut last weekend and performed well. Scores revealed a strenuous two days of battle with Immaculata emerging from the fray wearily and partially triumphant. The Kamloops Red-dental Indian School covered themselves with glory at the same time, scoring 32-23 against the Junior Dons on Friday night, and 19-13 on Saturday. Our Seniors rectified the matter, however, by tying them 20-20 during one frenzied game and defeating them 32-28 in another. Loud and hoarse was the cheering that weekend!

THE CRISIS

A note of doubt and what Emily Dickinson calls "zero at the bone" roared its head and presented itself to us this week with the news of the political mayhem concerning Cuba. For one silent, frightened day radio mumbled reports of the progress of the emergency U.N. meeting between classes and during study periods, while eyes grew rounder and faces more serious as one dire prediction followed another.

Yet the routine things go on, strangely, when everything is so threatening and unstable, and we still drag ourselves through the halls each morning with the familiar three-day-old banana-peel feeling and fumble half-heartedly for books. The annual committees still scrounge for low-trucks to extricate them from the bottom of the mound of their piled-up duties, and volleyball still bound off ceilings and into nets at noon.

Car Rolls Over Woman Escapes

A car driven by Judy A. Warren of Kelowna, went out of control Tuesday on Sexsmith Road near the Roman Catholic Cemetery. Police said the brakes failed and the car went into the ditch and rolled over. The driver was not injured, but damage totalled at least $100.

Canadian Club Have Speaker

Archaeologist Dr. Douglas Leechman will speak on "White Man-Red Man" at Friday's Canadian Club dinner here. He was contacted to give his award-winning talk after Australia's High Commissioner David Hay cancelled his speaking engagement here to return to Ottawa in view of the world situation.

Kelowna Earned Three Million From Tourists

Kelowna Tourist Bureau secretary Fred Hestley said Wednesday just under $3,000,000 was poured into the city from January to the end of September. He based his figure on tourist bureau inquiries of which he said there were about 9,700.

"Based on the fact that the Tourist Bureau only gives information to about 10 per cent of people who come to the city, there were 97,000 people here so far this year. Average spending is about $3 per capita."

He also pointed out the Tourist Bureau overspent about $1,100 this year to provide extra staff and facilities to cope with the tourist traffic.

No Decision On Location Of BCTA Office

No decision has been made on the location of the central tourist administration office for the province.

British Columbia Tourist Association president, Ed Wood of Vernon said in Kelowna Wednesday he has received applications from several cities. It is believed Kelowna is one of them.

He said at a recent BCTA executive meeting at the coast, 22 attended an eight-hour meeting. "There are usually about eight and the meetings only last for a few hours," he said.

"I think this is indicative of the tremendous interest in B.C. in tourism. We are going all out this year to get all the dollars we can to aid the industry."

He also urged Valley co-operation in the Okanagan Tourist Association to match the $15,000 the provincial government will set aside next year for promotion here.

"TOURIST" NO, "VISITOR" YES

That big paunchy guy in Bermuda shorts and a gaudy shirt is no longer a "tourist".

He's a "visitor".

This is the new image Kelowna and other areas are planning to encourage, replacing Okanagan Valley Tourist Association A. M. Duncan said the word "tourist" was associated in his mind with the above description.

Kelowna's ways and means committee to look into the future of the industry is to be called "a special visitors" group.

Fifth Victim Not Yet Named

RCMP at Kelowna have not yet released the name of the fifth victim of Monday night's Okanagan Bridge tragedy, pending notification of next-of-kin.

It is known however, that identification has been made by police investigators. No date has been set for an inquest into the accident which sent five men to their deaths in 80 feet of water at the lift span, and recovery of the car from the lake bottom is also still pending.

Balloon Sighted At Trout Creek

Jim McPhail, Kelowna Red Cross branch president, was among motorists who sighted a large balloon near Trout Creek on Highway 97 this morning. The balloon, drifting at about 1,000 feet in calm air, was about 10 feet in diameter and from it, a box-like object was hanging.

It is believed to be some sort of weather or scientific research balloon, but its release base is not known.

Says Kelowna Unco-operative

Mayor Bruce Cousins Wednesday night criticized Kelowna for its lack of co-operation on the Calgary football-goodwill trip.

He said two Vernon girls, Miss PNE and Miss International Football, as well as 100 or more Vernon people, also attended the Lions Stampede game Saturday but were never mentioned in any publicity.

A busload of Kelownians attended the game and gave away boxloads of apples.

Trip organizer Joe Keenan told Mayor Cousins he went to see certain operators in Vernon, asking them to join in on the trip. "They just weren't interested. Besides, this was a group project sponsored by the Royal Anno Hotel, not a civic project until at the last minute when we got help in the way of apples and brochures," Mr. Keenan said.

Vernon Mayor Suggests Co-Operative Planning

VERNON MAYOR — P3
Vernon mayor Bruce Cousins Wednesday recommended the three Valley mayors meet to talk about mutual problems.

Speaking at the monthly Chamber of Commerce meeting here, the Vernon mayor urged area co-operation.

Mayor R. F. Parkinson said later "The only thing that can hinder development is our own individual selfishness." He said he appreciated "the house truths" from our southern neighbor.

Mayor Cousins told the group area planning was needed. "If we brought in a planner for the three cities, it would save us a lot of work and a lot of money." "I can see the day when a lot of orchards along the lake will be gone and subdivisions built in their place," he predicted.

NO MORE ROADS
The mayor also suggested the Department of Highways be petitioned not to build any more roads beside the lake.

He called the area between Penticton and the north end of Lake Okanagan "the most fabulous in British Columbia" with its potential for beach and resort development. He said that development could be a mutual thing between the cities.

He said Vernon this past year has concentrated on its own beach development—at Kalamalka Lake, the north end of the Okanagan Lake and at Swan Lake through co-operation of the Indians' leasing land for improvements including parking.

MAYOR E. B. COUSINS ... asks togetherness

Kalamalka Lake, the north end of the Okanagan Lake and at Swan Lake through co-operation of the Indians' leasing land for improvements including parking.

VERNON'S STORY
In an outline of Vernon's history and present status, Mayor Cousins said that in his city per capita was $14. Population on the 1,800 acres which comprises the community is officially 10,250 but unofficially just over 12,000.

He said Vernon's economy was based on honey, small fruits, sheep, swine, grain, seed, beef, dairy cattle, vegetables, poultry and forest products as well as income from the old folks hospital with its staff of 90 and the Vernon Military Camp "which grows more substantial in its size and revenue every year."

CIVIC CENTRE

He said Vernon also has plans for the development of a civic centre on a 30-acre site. Needed, he said, were a new city hall, fire hall and it is rumored an auditorium.

Mayor Cousins has been a Vermonite for 25 years.

Chest Drive Slows Up; It's Becoming Pattern

By ANNE SMELLIE
Courier Staff Writer

There is a story that is grimly funny.

After a nuclear bomb-drop on, say Vancouver, a Red Cross worker was picking through the debris looking for victims.

He came on a huge crater and at the bottom saw a woman survivor.

"It's the Red Cross, madam," he shouted down to her.

And from the crater came: "My husband gives at work!"

This is a case in point in the 1962 Kelowna Community Chest campaign.

RETURN SLOW
Returns here are slow, campaign officials said today.

Biggest reason given by those canvassed is either a donation is being made at home or at work.

In many cases, I seriously doubt if this is the truth. With one week to go in its drive for $32,000 to aid 17 community agencies, returns at press time were $13,910.

Unless there is a last-minute push by canvassers and citizens alike, the campaign again this year is going to fall far short of its objective.

Community Chest president Harold Buchanan said however even if the campaign doesn't meet its objective, the local group has never been forced to cut its allocations to the agencies.

PENTICTON TOO
In Penticton, directors of the United Appeal there aiming for $25,000 said they will consider abandoning the drive next year if the current one fails to meet its goal.

There are 12 affiliated agencies. With a little more than a week left, only $8,450 has been brought in.

Penticton puts it down to a lack of co-ordination among service clubs and charitable organizations as well as "a general problem of apathy."

In view of the Penticton decision, Mr. Buchanan said the Kelowna group, if it falls this year, is going to have to consider the whole matter of Community Chest very seriously for next year.

"We hope this won't be the same position as Penticton."

NOT A PLEA
This reporter was surprised and even shocked to learn that $1 a month in terms of payroll deductions, one of the most painless ways to have the old paycheck lightened, is considered an exorbitant amount. Surely not.

This is not a plea for the agencies concerned. There has been and always will be a pro and con as to the eligibility of some of the agencies and their needs. Not just here but right across Canada.

But this is a comment on whether or not we as a very community-minded city want to have 17 people on the doorstep in the course of 365 days.

A final point. With the organization of the Chest here as it is, any money given may be designated to specific groups if the donor wishes.

High Students Will Run City On Monday

Monday, 126 students take over the city.

Mayor for Civic Administration Day will be Kelowna High School Student's Council president Bill Butler with deputy mayor Mark Sherriff from Dr. Knox High School. City clerk will be Ann Pelly and comptroller Charles Corbin.

Student Council representatives will sit as aldermen on Monday at the city council meeting.

The idea is about 10 years old. Present alderman L. A. N. Poterott brought it with him from Prince Rupert and it's been an annual civic day since.

All Grade 12 students, boys and girls, will sit in at city hall jobs in offices at the provincial government, fire department, RCMP station and The Daily Courier, as well as various city businesses.

Motor mechanics students will spend the day in city garages.

It'll Be Sunny Till Tomorrow

The weatherman says the south half of B.C. will be sunny today and cloudy tomorrow, but in Kelowna, except for late yesterday, low-lying cloud has obscured the sun for three days.

However, an improvement is looked for this afternoon, with return of cloud predicted for tomorrow.

The ridge of high pressure which has been protecting B.C. from Pacific storms has weakened considerably and rain will begin to fall over the north coast this afternoon with a few showers in the northern interior expected tomorrow.

Cloud will spread to all regions tomorrow but precipitation is expected to be limited to the northern areas.

Will A Vital Document; There Are Many Reasons

Everyone should make out a will. There are many reasons for this, better left to the legal pundits, but an obvious one is the fact that upon death, a properly prepared will immeasurably speeds up the settling of estate matters.

What constitutes a will?

According to a Canada Trust bulletin, in Canada the general rules are that the testator must be of sound mind and not under the age of 21 years.

The will must be in writing and must be signed at the foot or end thereof and the signature made or acknowledged by the testator in the presence of two or more witnesses, present at the same time, who will attest and subscribe the will in the presence of the testator.

There are, according to the bulletin, exceptions to these general rules such as a holograph will being acceptable in certain jurisdictions, but in large measure these requirements are necessary.

A valid will can be voluntarily revoked by executing a new will or destroying the original document. It will be automatically revoked by marriage unless drawn and executed in contemplation of marriage. It may be amended or altered by completing a codicil to the original will.

Many situations are found in which individuals alter or revoke wills in a manner that contravenes legal rules. A testator, in one case, crossed out certain words in his will and substituted other words in pen and ink. He carefully initialed the changes and felt that by doing so he had complied with the provisions of the law.

The court subsequently held that at best this writing would indicate the testator intended to alter or change the provisions of the regular will but that those changes failed to comply with the provisions of the law in that jurisdiction.

It has been said that a person's will is the most important document he or she will ever sign. Certainly it should set out the wishes of the individual in precise and accurate terms, but of cardinal importance is the need for it to be valid in the jurisdiction in which the testator is domiciled at the time of its execution.

Unless one is trained in the law it is doubtful he knows the many legal technicalities inherent in the preparation of a will. It therefore is most important that, when he reaches his majority or when he marries or, in some cases, remarries, consultation with a duly qualified legal representative is most emphatic and vital where a will is concerned.

Costs — And Initiative

There was a time when Canadians were goaded into a host of charitable undertakings by the reiterated question, "Am I my brother's keeper?"

Now, it would seem, the "brother's keeper" role for Canada is being decidedly overdone. All sorts of schemes in the way of social planning are being foisted on the public.

A warning that Canadians should halt the headlong rush into needless and superfluous charity has been issued by J. W. Ramsay, director of studies of the School of Social Science.

Canada, said Mr. Ramsay, is slowly being led down the path that must terminate in a complete cradle-to-grave system. The short term advantages of such a system, he noted, could lead eventually to disaster. Legislation being written into powerful enactments ignores the most elementary laws of economics.

—Chatham Daily News

An Impractical Theory

When the teacher in a high school class in economics found that his pupils were in favor of the theory of taking from those who had more than enough and giving to those in need, he announced that beginning immediately, he would put the system in operation in the class. He would subtract from the grades of the top students, and add it to the grades of the poorest students, so they all would have an average grade.

The first month the system worked pretty well. The grades of the best students were high enough to offset the deficiency of the lower ones, and the class average was above the passing mark. Then the situation changed. The top students saw no reason to put forth extra effort required to get good grades, with which they would not be credited. The medium students put forth less effort for they were assured passing grades. The dullest did not work at all, since they would pass with the aid of the grades taken from the others. So, while at first the system provided passing grades for all, within a very short time the entire class was failing. They then realized that this socialistic-communistic theory was impractical.

They Came From All Over To Visit Seattle's Fair

SEATTLE (AP)—They came down from the Canadian Arctic, the steamy cities of India, the lowlands of France and the slopes of Mt. Fuji.

"Beyond all expectations" was the way most representatives of the 55 countries exhibiting at the Seattle World's Fair described their reaction to the exposition.

Great Britain, with the largest pavilion, proved the biggest attraction but tiny San Marino, the smallest exhibitor, drew thousands with its fine stamp display.

TODAY IN HISTORY

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Oct. 25, 1962 . . . The Union Nationale of Maurice Duplessis was swept from office in the Quebec election 23 years ago today—in 1939—when the Liberals took 68 of the 86 seats. Three years previously Union Nationale, a combination of former Liberals, Conservatives and independents, had unseated the Liberal victory of 1936.

1913—The Calgary stock Exchange was incorporated. 1938—Japanese forces captured Hankow, provincial capital of China.

Foreign exhibitors had tangible evidence of the fair's success in the form of hundreds of inquiries about obtaining agencies, distributorships and bulk imports. But they expressed equal satisfaction with the intangible results. They were particularly happy over the opportunity to erase some misconceptions about their countries.

NOT WAR DEVASTATED
"Americans still think of Korea as a war-devastated nation," said Mun Bae Chong. "They don't know how industrialized we are."

The theme of the fair was "the world of tomorrow" but the exhibitors were free to show whatever they wanted. Many nations stressed technological advances, others incorporated displays of the arts and products associated with their countries.

Exhibits ranged from a simple display of striking photographs sponsored by 28 African nations to a push-button model of a French reactor. Refrigerators from the United Arab Republic, Korean pianos, Canada's suture staples for repairing damaged arteries, sensitive measuring devices from India—these and scores of other exhibits made many visitors aware of industrial advancement throughout the world.

TO YOUR GOOD HEALTH

Earrings And Iffys

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Can pierced ears result in blood poisoning? I've been stepped on and the skin ripped while herding a bull in a pen barefoot and didn't get it. I've stepped on rusty nails in the desert and didn't even need a bandage. But my mother says I can't have my ears pierced because I'll get blood poisoning. Is this true? Please hurry your reply.

—Jane N.

Do you want to find out about blood poisoning, or having your ears pierced?

I don't recommend stepping on rusty nails, or being stepped on by a bull, because either may (not WILL) open the way for blood poisoning, or tetanus, or infection. Piercing the ears may (not WILL) cause any of these things, depending on whether dangerous germs happen to enter the wound. I approve of ear piercing only under strictly antiseptic conditions. Maybe I sound like an old fogey to you, and maybe I am, but why don't you respect your mother's wishes at least until you are older? Old enough not to step on rusty nails or be stepped on, barefoot, by bulls. Anyway, the safe way is to have your doctor do the piercing.

Dear Dr. Molner: I will be 50 in November. My doctor says my tonsils should be removed. Is there any other treatment besides surgery? I understand that bleeding is a problem in such cases.—B.H.

It's true that there sometimes may be (not necessarily will be) more bleeding in an adult than in a child.

Whatever the reason for this, doctors would rather remove a child's tonsils than an adult's. Therefore they don't tell adults that the tonsils ought to come out unless the need is unmistakable. It's a nuisance, I realize, for a man of 50 to have his tonsils removed, but if they are bad enough to cause the doctor to urge surgery, then I'd have no hesitation in saying yes.

Dear Dr. Molner: Do vitamins taken independently of food benefit the body, or must they be taken with food to be effective? What about natural or synthetic vitamins?—M.E.G.

Vitamins are complicated chemicals. They are vitally needed, although in but tiny quantities. It doesn't make any difference whether they are taken with or without food. They are naturally present in food. A long as we get these traces of chemicals, that's sufficient, whether they are "natural" or "synthetic." They are the same, chemically, and your body doesn't care. You can also eat steak for breakfast and bacon and eggs for supper if you prefer. The only question is to eat what your body needs.

Dear Doctor: Is it possible for a person to live without salt?—G.M.

That's an "iffy" sort of question. If you mean living without the kind of salt you put in a salt-shaker, yes, because most foods, even those we don't consider "salty," have at least a trace of natural salt. Some have quite a bit. There is no such thing as a "salt-free diet." Only a low-salt diet.

An added "iffy" aspect of your question is that if a person lived in a cool climate the year round, and never worked up a sweat, he could get along with less salt than if he worked strenuously in a hot climate. This is because we lose salt rapidly as we perspire, and that's why people in very hot and sweaty jobs, such as working in a foundry, may need salt tablets to ward off collapse from the heat. It's really "collapse from loss of salt."

OTTAWA REPORT

"Pairing" And Voting

By PATRICK NICHOLSON

An unfamiliar declaration, echoing from our memory but long fallen into disuse, was heard in the House of Commons after the final vote terminating the Throne Speech debate.

"Mr. Speaker, I was paired with the Minister of Public Works (Hon. E. D. Fulton). Had I voted, I would have voted against the motion."

The speaker was Alan Macnaughton, Liberal M.P. from Montreal.

The system of "pairing", by which two M.P.s on opposite sides of the House protect each other and their party against enforced absence from a vote, has not been needed on Parliament Hill for many years. True, the election of 1957 put the Conservative Party into office, yet in an overall minority of 42 seats. But other elections since the war have given one party or another very, very comfortable working majorities. In 1949, the Liberals won by a margin of 117 seats over all other parties; in 1953 they repeated their win, but by a margin reduced to the yet plush cushion of 74 seats. In 1958 the Conservatives attained Canada's all-time record margin of 150 seats over all other parties combined.

We have to go back to the 1945 election to recall a close margin, when every vote might count and illness or business could cause absences sufficient to upset the balance. That election left the Liberals in power with a bare 4-seat margin over all other parties combined.

MUST BE ABSENCES

The first roll-call vote in this obviously exciting session saw a very rare full count. But by a week later, those unavoidable absences could be counted. Eight Conservatives—including David Fulton who was "paired" with Alan Macnaughton—were not in the Chamber. Three Social Credit members, seven Liberals and 2 New Democrats were also missing.

The numbers of M.P.s of each party are so balanced in this Parliament that all three opposition parties must vote together to defeat the Conservative government. But if any one party, no matter which, votes with the government, it will win that vote. It is obviously predicted that on any vote involving political philosophy, the party of the extreme right wing, Social Credit, and the party of the extreme left wing, New Democrats, will vote on different sides. Therefore no matter what the division, the middle of the road Conservatives will always find one or other voting with them.

But it is a delicate balance, with 118 Conservatives, 108 Liberals, 30 Social Crediters and 18 New Democrats. Allowing for the Conservative M.P. who serves as Speaker, and who may vote to break a tie, the government has only 113 effective votes. From this it can readily be seen an epidemic of flu, a party convention, or the funeral of a colleague—among other events—could easily lead to a snap vote causing the overthrow of the government.

It is just to prevent this that the system of "pairing" is so essential. It has not yet been organized extensively within the House; but it obviously must come.

VOTE OF CONFIDENCE?

Allied to the question of pairing is the definition of a "vote of confidence". Under normal parliamentary practice, a government only considers itself defeated, and consequently resigns, if it is defeated in the House on a specific motion of censure or want of confidence, or on an issue so essential to government policy that such a defeat amounts to a censure.

But parliamentary practice in this regard has long been abnormal in Ottawa. The practice was allowed to grow up, and was carefully nurtured especially by the late Prime Minister Mackenzie King, that every vote by roll-call is a vote of confidence. This device might have been introduced to encourage better attendance; but what it has certainly achieved is to make every M.P. into a "members of the 1953-1957 parliament were aptly dubbed. The party "whips" are on for every vote; no decision is left to the conscience or special local circumstances of any M.P. It would make for stability—by eliminating accidental defeat—and add to the stature of our M.P.s if an agreed return to normality could end this Canadian heresy.

POWER SITE

A study prepared for a United States Senate committee reports that a vast hydroelectric distribution system stretching from Alaska through British Columbia to California is economically feasible. Key to the system would be a $1,300,000,000 dam on the Yukon River in Alaska to yield 3,730,000 kilowatts of power. The project would require agreement between the United States and Canada because the river originates in Canada.—(CP Newsmag)

MAIN AUSTERITY REVISIONS

A cut of $85,600,000 from the defence department's budget was the major one in revised estimates tabled in the Commons by Finance Minister Nowlan. Graph also shows other departments involved in major cuts with the original spending program estimate of last Feb. 12 and the revised figure. The transport department was reduced about $30,000,000; public works $25,000,000; agriculture $12,600,000; northern affairs $9,700,000; and external affairs $9,500,000. (CP Newsmag)

LETTER TO EDITOR

BRIDGE FATALITIES

The Editor,
Kelowna Daily Courier

Dear Sir:

It is now evident that no combination of warning signals, however adequate they may appear, is going to prevent all accidents.

I would suggest that two nets of steel wire cables of ample strength, one at each end of the lift-span be installed. They should be the full width of the roadway, one end fastened to the abutment below road level and, the other end to the underside of the lift span and should be of sufficient length to allow some slack when the span is fully raised.

Any competent engineer could work out the specifications.

Passengers in a vehicle driving into the net would probably be shaken and bruised, but not drowned.

Sincerely,
M. J. EVANS

Former Kelowna Girl Wed In Alhambra, California

Miss Judith Helen Sutherland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colin Sutherland of Alhambra, California, became the bride of Kenneth Lee Griffing son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Griffing of Monterey Park at a recent evening wedding ceremony held in the First Presbyterian Church of Alhambra with the Reverend J. Prentice officiating.

The bride and her parents are former Kelownians having lived in the Valley from 1946 to 1956 during which time her father, Mr. Colin Sutherland was depot manager for the Greyhound Lines here.

Some 250 guests were present at the candlelight service. White stock, gladioli and ribbons adorned the church altar and pews and music for the occasion was furnished by John Stewart, organist and Glen Shaw, soloist. Musical selections included "We'll Walk With God," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white silk organza over taffeta gown fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves and a chapel train. The portrait neckline was edged in Alencon lace retrimmed with seed pearls.

A crown of pearls and crystals held a silk illusion bouffant veil. The bride's only jewelry was a pearl drop, a gift from her father. She carried a presentation bouquet of troyana roses.

Westbank United Church Plans Annual Supper November 23

Resuming meetings following the summer recess, the Evening Group of Westbank United Church are making plans for the annual supper held regularly since the church was built in 1928.

Next year will be the 25th anniversary of the dedication of Westbank United Church, and already plans are being formulated for this special occasion. Built largely by volunteer labor, the church was dedicated at a special service held Nov. 20, 1938. Its first organ was contributed by Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Howlett, Westbank residents for some years who later moved to the coast where last month they celebrated their diamond wedding.

Prior to the building of Westbank United, services by Presbyterians, Methodists, and later, United Church members were held in schoolrooms and private homes for at least 25 years, and the realization of a church building was the culmination of the dreams of many years.

President of the Evening Group of Westbank United Church is Mrs. Herb Stafford, and the October meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Nelson Reese. Mrs. Floyd French will hostess the November meeting scheduled for Nov. 13.

On this occasion final plans will be made for the supper to be held in Westbank Community Hall on Nov. 23. The date of this annual event is always as close to the date of the church dedication service as possible.

Mr. J. Basham Sr., accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Brian Tickle, left for the coast early this week, where they will visit relatives before Mrs. Tickle returns to her home in Auckland, New Zealand.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Norquay had as guests last week, the latter's niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Elliott, of Palmerston, Ont. Leaving after their week's stay, they flew to California to visit a son-in-law and daughter and a son, there before returning to Canada, where they will stay again with Mrs. Elliott's aunt and uncle before proceeding east.

ANN LANDERS

He Must Be Very Rich

Dear Ann Landers: Your column has had numerous letters dealing with mother-in-law problems. This one is a father-in-law. My husband's father is refined, educated and devoted to his family. He also has a very high opinion of himself. He enjoys playing the role of counselor and priest. When a member of the family gets out of line or appears to be having a problem he writes them long letters of advice. Perhaps this is commendable but he doesn't realize that unsolicited advice can be resented.

It wouldn't be so bad if he just sent the advice but he sends carbons of his letters (as well as copies of the replies) to other members of the family.

One of our married sons is having marital difficulties. The carbons and copies are flying thick and fast. Our son and his wife are furious. They didn't ask for his advice and they never intended that their replies be circulated.

We hate to offend the old gentleman but we wish he would stop it. Any suggestions will be appreciated. — E. T.

Dear E. T.: And pray tell, how in the world has your father-in-law been able to get away with this? He must be very rich.

At some point someone ought to say, "Thanks a lot but please don't write me any more of your supreme court opinions." And this should be said on the telephone or in person. Any one who puts anything in writing to this self-appointed oracle is clearly out of his mind.

Dear Ann Landers: I dated an extremely attractive and lively young woman for several months. I happen to be the generous type. When I court a young woman I enjoy giving her flowers, gifts and lots of little surprises. You may think I'm a chump but I derive great pleasure from giving.

years of age and she doesn't know it's a sign of good upbringing to return gifts when the romance is over. I've tried to educate her along these lines but she has told me to go climb a weed. What can I do about this grasping, immature child?

DEARLY BURNED Dear Burned: Since you give for the sheer pleasure of giving, you've already reaped your reward — what more do you want?

Gifts presented during courtship belong to the lady. She is under no obligation to return anything except an engagement ring. And then — only if she breaks the engagement.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm 23 and engaged to a very fine man. His mother has invited me to spend Thanksgiving in her home. I'm looking forward to it with great pleasure.

I am unsure about how much housework I should do when I get there. I know she has a large home but I don't know if she has any servants. Should I offer to help clear the table if there is no maid?

Do I make my own bed? Should I offer to help cook?

Please give me some pointers, Ann. I am eager to do the right thing but I don't know what is proper. Thank you. — AVID READER

Dear Reader: A houseguest always picks up after herself and attempts to make her own bed, servants or no. If there are servants you would not, of course, help clear the table or offer to cook. If there are no servants, ask your future mother-in-law what you can do to help. The most common mistake is to insist on "helping" when the hostess would prefer that you not.

Bananas are not native to Canada... and neither are rum. Lemon Hart, for example, is produced under the most wonderful conditions in The Caribbean. But for Lemon Hart, even that is not enough: It's shipped to London where it rests quietly in underground vaults where neither the temperature nor the humidity varies more than a degree or two year in year out. Then, meticulously blended and bottled it's finally shipped to Canada... smooth, mellow, delicious... a perfect product of that small area of the world that is famous for distinguished rum.

Women Get In On Act Of Censuring Council

VERNON (Staff)—Vernon Local Council of Women last night has joined the increasing list of service clubs and fraternal associations here to censure City Council for eliminating the position of court reporter in Magistrate's court.

Following a lengthy discussion on a letter from the Junior Chamber of Commerce which asked the opinion of the ladies' club on the matter, Council of Women went on record that it was their opinion a full complement of court personnel, including the court reporter should be retained to insure justice. A copy of the proposal will be forwarded to the attorney general's department and to Jaycees.

Earlier Jaycees, Vernon Bar Association and the John Howard Society urged council to reconsider and reverse its policy of court personnel.

City council two months ago, in what it claimed was a money-saving measure, dispensed with the court reporter's position and retained the deputy magistrate when an Order-in-Council raised the magistrate's salary by $115 per month. The magistrate's salary is paid by the city, but he is directed in his hours of work and duties by the attorney general.

Social Workers Agree On Study

VERNON (Staff)—At a recent meeting of the Okanagan Mainline Association of social workers in Vernon, members adopted a plan of study including forming a committee to report on the variety of social services—public and private. This will include volunteer and professional with a particular focus on family services.

The association believes this will involve the gathering of information pertaining to the origin and support of various agencies and the extent of their coverage of services. Particular attention will be given to existing gaps where no family services are offered here and also to areas where agencies may overlap services provided by others.

It is the hope of the association that this study can help acquaint the public with the different services they may call upon for their own needs. The association is also contemplating that the United Appeal Society may be able to use the material in future considerations of the development of family services to the community.

LETTER TO EDITOR:

Sir:

As an ex-resident of the Kelowna district and as president of the Okanagan Drama Association, I was thrilled to attend the opening of the Kelowna Community Theatre. I hope to attend many performances there—especially when the toll charge is off the bridge.

As an ex-columnist in the Daily Courier, I still read your paper whenever I can pick up a free copy. I happened to read the destructive criticism of the Vernon Little Theatre production of the Dark of the Moon by your "Angry Young Man" Jim Billingsley. It is always a pity when personal prejudice is allowed to have such a shrill airing.

It is hoped that the Okanagan drama one-act play festival may be held in Kelowna in the spring. Would it be possible for us to have an impartial reporter, perhaps your regular drama critic, cover our next meeting which will be held on Sunday, Oct. 28 at 2 p.m. in the Kelowna Little Theatre Clubhouse?

Your truly,
Kitty (Haverfield) Wilson,

ROAMIN' WITH ROBIN

By ROBIN BROWN

Bad Grant's football machine, a truly awesome thing to behold when firing on all cylinders, is back once again in its accustomed spot at the top of the heap in the Western Conference by virtue of a win over the upstart Saskatchewan Roughriders Monday night . . . It also kept alive the B.C. Lions' playoff hopes.

Most important game of the season for both teams is on tap Saturday when the two meet for the fourth time this season at Empire Stadium . . . The record, strangely enough, stands at two games to one in favor of the rejuvenated Lions.

Even stranger is the fact that Dave Skrien's crew have shown a marked superiority over the Big Blue in their last two encounters . . . even in the Bombers' back yard yet! This itself, has been deemed an impossible task over the last few seasons, but the facts are in the record books for all to see this season.

The Lions' two wins over the Bombers have also put them in striking distance of a playoff berth . . . another unusual happening in the topsy-turvy Western Conference season this year.

Position at the moment is this . . . Bombers need to win Saturday to help them gain a bye into the playoffs and the Lions must win both Saturday's game and their one remaining game thereafter, against the Roughriders, to hit the playoff trail and even with two consecutive victories, (both at home), the Roughies have to lose one of their remaining pair (at Calgary and Vancouver), to open the gold trail to the Lions.

Strange kind of situation isn't it? . . . The oft-maligned Lions and the cellar dwellers of the past decade are now fighting for the third and final playoff berth. There's hope for almost anyone these days, by permission of Messrs. Castro, Khrushchev and J.F.K. of course!

But, and it is a big one, the days of dropped passes, fumbles, interceptions and the like are over at this stage of the game . . . Only the good ones come out on top and the good ones, in our opinion are those of the massive depth and bench strength.

Let's suppose the Lions do grab that last playoff berth. First stumbling block along the trail to Earl Grey's Olde Mugs will be Bobby Dobbs' Cow-boys complete with Earl 'The Earthquake' Lunsford, Eagle Day and Company . . . not a very inviting thought is it?

And suppose, (just suppose), everything being in its right place so to speak, Dave Skrien's shock troops knock them off, what then?

Looming in that cold and unfriendly distance, well rested and rarin' to go . . . Yep! The boys who are so accustomed to bringing home the bacon every year . . . The Bombers!

Season play goes out the window . . . it's a brand new ball game and their kind of ball game at that. Ah! you say . . . but they were knocked off by Jackie Parker and Company in 1960 remember? . . . So they were, so they were. Perhaps the winning habit made them complacent just that once . . . But never again.

The writing's on the wall from where we see it. Bud Grant's got just too much of everything all the way along the line for any one else in the West to stop them making that 'almost' annual pilgrimage in quest of the Grey Cup to which they're so accustomed.

Nobody, not nobody, else is going to take that privilege away from them at least for this year . . . And what's more they'll very probably hike it all the way back to 'Peg again with them as per usual.

STAN MUSIAL

Stan The Man Gets Comeback Player Award

NEW YORK (AP) — Stan Musial of St. Louis Cardinals, seven times National League batting champion, was named today as the circuit's comeback player of the year for 1962 in the annual Associated Press poll.

Musial, who hit more than 300 this season for the first time in four seasons, was selected by 31 of the 108 baseball writers participating in the balloting. Catcher Del Crandall of Milwaukee was second with 23 votes followed by pitcher Ed Roebuck of Los Angeles 15, outfielder Bob Skinner of Pittsburgh 10 and infielder - outfielder Harvey Kuenn of San Francisco 6.

Musial finished third in batting last season with a .330 mark, including 143 hits, 19 of them homers. The 42-year-old outfielder also stole three bases.

Gordy Redahn, who jumped from junior ranks into professional hockey and since 1956-57, has been doing a merry dance with five teams, has been purchased by Calgary Stampede of the Western Hockey League.

Chances are the 27-year-old forward could have helped Wednesday night as the Stamps lost 3-2 to San Francisco Seals. Los Angeles Blades edged Portland Buckaroos 4-3.

The results left Portland, Los Angeles and San Francisco in a first-place tie in the Southern Division. Calgary stayed in last place in the north, two points behind Seattle Totems and Edmonton Flyers.

The amount involved in the Redahl deal was not announced as he was released from Pittsburgh Hornets of the American League. He scored three goals and three assists with the Hornets this season.

Calgary had a 2-1 edge on the visiting Seals after the first period, then collapsed under a second-period San Francisco attack.

MANTHA GETS TWO — Defenceman Moe Mantha scored twice in four minutes to pull the visitors ahead to stay. Len Haley fired the other San Francisco goal. George McAvoy and Fred Hucul tallied for the Stamps.

The third period produced most of the excitement at Los Angeles. The Blades were ahead 2-1 going into the period, but a minute later Orv Tessier tied it up. Los Angeles made it 3-2 well into the period on a goal by Bill Burega.

For the final assault Portland pulled goalie Don Head to pick up another attacker. The plan went sour as Bob Solinger of the Blades coasted in on an empty net at 19:25 to make the score 4-2.

Still persisting, Bill Saunders of the Buckaroos jammed the puck behind Los Angeles goalie Jack McCartan to finish the scoring.

Willie O'Ree and Stan Maxwell picked up singles in the opening period for Los Angeles, while Tom McCarthy scored the only goal of the second, for Portland.

Portland is at Los Angeles in tonight's only action.

Liston After New Manager

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Sonny Liston, world heavyweight boxing champion, is reported to be after football coach Frank Leahy to take over as his fight manager.

The move is reported in two newspapers, the New Orleans Times-Picayune and the New York Journal-American.

Leahy, 54, once coached Notre Dame and now is a stock salesman and public relations man in San Diego, Calif.

Stick Swingers May Get More Than Fine

"Sticks and stones may break my bones," chant little children, but you can't stop those high-spirited Montreal boys from trying to find out for themselves.

So now President Clarence Campbell has $200 worth of fines to add to the National Hockey League treasury. Gilles Tremblay has two black eyes and a head full of thread; Reg Fleming has a sore arm, and all three have an appointment for a talk in Campbell's office in Montreal Saturday.

Fleming, a Montreal resident playing for Chicago Black Hawks, and Tremblay, a Montreal resident playing for Montreal Canadiens, took to bashing each other with their sticks Tuesday night in Chicago Stadium—stones not being readily at hand.

Campbell is known to look with deep disfavor on any use of the hockey stick for purposes other than passing a puck, and his powers to end such practices are unlimited by the NHL constitution.

COULD BE SUSPENDED — Tremblay and Fleming could be suspended, or fined even more than the automatic $100 each they were levied along with match penalties. Or they could get both.

The most recent precedent would indicate a suspension, or at least a partial one that would keep the two players from meeting under NHL auspices again this season. However, the most recent precedent was considerably more serious.

In the 1953-54 season Montreal's Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion nearly ended the career of Ron Murphy, then with New York and now with Chicago, by smashing him with his stick.

Murphy was just enough out of position so that Geoffrion's stick shattered his jaw instead of his skull. Both players were suspended from all New York-Montreal games for the rest of the season, a suspension that meant little to Murphy — he spent most of the winter in hospital, away—but crippled Geoffrion's attempts to win the NHL scoring championship.

OLD COUNTRY SOCCER

FA Charged With Trying To Weaken Irish Team

By M. McINTYRE HOOD Special to The Daily Courier

LONDON — The Football Association has come in for a good deal of adverse criticism for making it impossible for Derek Dougan, international centre forward, to play for his native country of Ireland against England. Dougan was sent off the field in a recent game with Nottingham Forest, and the F.A. Committee ordered a suspension of this player for 14 days. And it timed the suspension so that he could not play for Ireland against England, a post for which he would have been an automatic selection.

In a Sunday newspaper, was quite outspoken in his condemnation of the action of the F.A. He said: "Dougan suspended by the F.A. He would not be able to play for us against England. What a liberty. How silly and faint-hearted can the men who control English soccer become? English selectors—some are allied to the committee that made the suspension—suspend one of their opponents; Northern Ireland struggling to compete. "If the boot were on the other foot, the idea might be just. But there is not a true Irishman who could take such an advantage and hold his head high. Dougan committed no crime with the Irish team, and yet we have to suffer. Could not the Blanchflower, captain of Tottenham and Ireland, in an articleshort-sighted legislators have delayed the suspension until after the game between Ireland and England?" Blanchflower may be hauled over the coals by the F.A. for being so outspoken, but he is only voicing the views of the majority of football lovers in this country that Dougan's suspension should not have been dated so as to keep him out of the Irish side against England.

Cepeda Suffering From Eye Injury

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Orlando Cepeda, San Francisco Giants' slugging first baseman, has eye trouble. But the specialist who will examine him Monday says he doubts the problem is anything as serious as a cataract. Cepeda, a batting disappointment late in the season and the World Series, revealed his concern over eye trouble Wednesday. The 1961 National League home run and runs-batted-in king said he was told the trouble might be a cataract on his right eye. Cepeda said he learned about the condition last week when he took a driver's test. "I couldn't see out of my right eye," he said. "Left eye, okay. Right eye bad. I went to a doctor who told me I may have a cataract. I am going back to the doctor for another examination before I go home to Puerto Rico."

Hornung, Brown Watch Leaderships Slipping

NEW YORK (AP) — Three-time scoring champion Paul Hornung of Green Bay Packers has joined ground-gaining titlist Jimmy Brown of Cleveland Browns as a defrocked leader.

Three Colts Vie For Top Racing Honor

NEW YORK (AP)—A battle for honors as United States Horse of the Year, with international overtones, is scheduled Saturday at Belmont Park when Kelso and Carry Back hook up in the $100,000-added Man o' War Stakes. Two of the best three-year-olds in Europe add international flavor to the backyard squabble between Carry Back, a four-year-old colt, and five-year-old Kelso. Monade, a filly owned by Greek shipping magnate George Goulandris, and Maroula du Vivier's Val de Loir are the French invaders in the 14-mile race over the Widener grass course. Val de Loir won the French Derby, and Monade the English Oaks. In addition, George D. Widener's Jalpur, the best three-year-old colt in the U.S., will join the fray, along with Beau Purple, T. V. Lark and several of the best grass-course specialists.

In the National Football League's individual statistical races. Hornung, who sat out Sunday's 31-13 Packers triumph over San Francisco 49ers because of a twisted right knee, lost his lead to end Frank Clarke of Dallas Cowboys, who grabbed three touchdown passes from quarterback Eddie LeBaron and increased his point total to 66 points on 11 touchdowns. Hornung is second with 62 points, league statistics showed today. Brown, who has led rushers for the five years he has been in the NFL, is mired in sixth place with 399 yards gained—a 4.1 average. Hornung's teammate, Jim Taylor, has amassed 742 yards and a 6.7 average, tops in the league. LeBaron, who once performed for Calgary Stampede in the Western Conference, passed for 295 yards and five touchdowns in a 42-27 victory over Pittsburgh Steelers, giving him the lead in average at 10.27 yards, a tie for the top spot with Johnny Unitas of Baltimore Colts in touchdown passes with 11 and second place in completion percentage at 65.2.

Football Deaths Near 1961 All-Time Record

Speedy Dixon Gets Nod For Russell Trophy

George Dixon, shy off the field but brassy and bold when he carries a football, was named today as the 1961 winner of the Jeff Russell Memorial Trophy. The 190-pound Montreal Alouette halfback has dazzled Eastern Football Conference fans this season. He's only 69 yards shy of the rushing record with two games remaining and he leads the scoring parade by seven points with 12 touchdowns in 12 games. The rookie of the year, also named Wednesday, is Whit Tucker, 21, the swift Ottawa Rough Rider defensive halfback who played last year with the University of Western Ontario Mustangs. The trophy commemorates the late Jeff Russell of the old Montreal AAA team who was electrocuted in 1926 while repairing a power line in Montreal. Dixon, from New Haven, Conn., has been a threat every time he carried the ball this season. The former Green Bay Packer, who joined Montreal late in the 1959 season after being cut by the National League club, has piled up 1,348 yards rushing with a third-place team.

NEW YORK (AP)—Football deaths in the United States are climbing steadily towards last year's total of 34, the highest in 25 years.

A unofficial count of those who have died directly or indirectly as a result of accidents in the sport has risen to 18 with the addition of two youths fatally injured within a 24-hour period.

Mike Mallory, 17, a high school guard in Gallup, N.M., apparently died of a head injury after collapsing on the practice field. James Lucian Beaudin, 18, a freshman at Louisiana State University, died of a skull fracture suffered in an intramural soccer football game.

The total of 18 deaths—with the football season only half completed—indicates the number could approach the 1961 total, the highest since 44 died in 1936.

Of this year's deaths, 15 have occurred in high schools. Beaudin was the second in school play. In addition, three college players have died.

In Canada, an unofficial count shows only one death: Robert McArdle collapsed during a football game in the Montreal outskirts Aug. 26 and died 24 hours later. An autopsy showed the 25-year-old, 300-pound tackle with Trois-Rivières Braves of the Quebec Intermediate Football Conference had taken stimulants before playing in 90-degree heat and had a temperature of 100 when admitted to hospital.

DOCTOR AT GAMES

In Toronto, officials ruled this year that a doctor must be in attendance at every high school football game. The league pays the doctors' fees. In addition, they ask that an ambulance be within three minutes of every game in case of emergency. The rise in the number of U.S. fatalities has brought statements of concern from educationists, doctors and parents. University of Texas coach Darrell Royal sat down after one such death on the campus this season and worked out a revised training program. He changed the training schedule to include water breaks and salt tablets every 30 minutes. Previously the squad had gone straight through a two-hour session.

Tory MP Jolts Commons Blasting U.S. "Aggression"

OTTAWA (CP)—A Conservative MP who advocates a new tariff policy for Canada jolted a quiet debate in the House of Commons Tuesday night by accusing the United States of "unprovoked aggression" in its Cuban arms blockade.

Terry Nugent, 41, an Edmonton lawyer, caused obvious consternation among the government benches when he dropped his bombshell speech into the leg end of a draw-out disc as he spoke on financial affairs.

He said Canada ought to tell the U.S. that "we cannot as a nation with a national conscience, permit ourselves to be associated in an action which constitutes unprovoked aggression."

"I suggest it is the duty of our government to bring this subject before the attention of President Kennedy, to ask him to lay his hand to not precipitate a fight."

"I am afraid that the other side will not budge down in the face of unprovoked aggression—and where it stops, nobody knows."

Dramatic Fight To Save Ship

HAMILTON, Bermuda (CP)—After a dramatic and successful race against time to load a deck cargo of high explosives, above a blazing hull full of live ammunition, the 1,253-ton freighter Trans Union is due to leave Bermuda soon for the United States naval base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

The ship is carrying high explosives, firearms, small-arms ammunition and a small quantity of radioactive material.

The Trans Union raced for Bermuda after being battered by a hurricane and threatened with the second fire within a month.

When she reached Bermuda local firemen and U.S. navy and air force fire-fighters went quickly aboard. The fire in No. 2 hold was quenched in less than 20 minutes.

The freighter also carries cars, trucks, furniture and general cargo.

The five greatest perils of the ship's cargo have been plague, cholera, smallpox, typhus and yellow fever.

No Fear For Prisoners

ODENSBURG, N.Y. (AP)—James H. Donovan, who has been negotiating for the release of 1,113 Cuban-invasion prisoners, says it is "inconceivable" that their lives may be in jeopardy because of the current crisis.

Opening lead—six of clubs.
We have mentioned before that Sylvia was an accident-prone player. As a matter of fact, many of Sylvia's triumphs came about through some inadvertence on her part, whether because of an unintended carelessness, or by virtue of a gross misapprehension of what she conceived to be the governing principle of a hand.

These sensational triumphs, whatever their cause, were an unending topic of conversation among the members of the club. Everyone knew that Sylvia was a somewhat confused player who, due to the eccentricities of her thinking, might make the strangest bids or plays at any given moment. It wasn't that she didn't try to reason things out—according to her lights she was playing correctly—it was rather that her conclusions were incomprehensible by ordinary standards.

She was playing at the club one day when this hand came up. Sylvia was East. South got to three notrump and West led a club.

Sylvia took the ace and returned the jack. South, one of the club's top experts, won with the king. He saw that by far the best chance of making the hand was to rely on a spade finesse. If Sylvia had the king, he could finesse against her and bring home nine tricks.

South also saw that it would be foolish to try to capture five diamond tricks because that would require West to have both the king and jack. A single finesse (in spades) obviously had a better chance of succeeding than a double finesse (in diamonds).

So he led a diamond to the ace, preparing to take a spade finesse. But on the ace, Sylvia, who thought he intended to finesse the queen, played the king!

Unaware of Sylvia's mistake, South took stock again. Naturally, he thought the king was a singleton. So instead of finessing the spade, he returned to his hand with a heart and led the nine of diamonds and finessed against West's presumed jack.

Sylvia won the trick with the king, returned a club, and South went down two!

YOUR HOROSCOPE

FOR TOMORROW
Stellar influences continue to be generous. Many endeavors are favored, including business matters, travel, community activities. Personal relationships should be unusually congenial and there is a good chance that you could advance a cherished goal through the help of an influential person.

FOR THE BIRTHDAY
If tomorrow is your birthday, a considerable improvement in your prospects is indicated as of November. There is promise of financial gain, as well as job advancement, within the next seven months and since November is truly Scorpio's month, you should take advantage of every possible opportunity to make use of, and co-operate with the propitious influences beginning then, and continuing through mid-1963. The months between June and September should find you having an exceptionally gay time, with many social affairs scheduled; also opportunities for travel.

Decisions which you may be called upon to make in March can be of tremendous importance, so take your time in making them. Do nothing impulsively—especially in financial matters—and analyze all situations carefully before making up your mind which course to pursue. This should not be difficult for a native Scorpio, since you are traditionally noted for good judgment and foresight.

A child born on this day will be determined in the pursuit of goals and will be extremely ambitious, but may have to curb a tendency toward over-aggressiveness.

Mayor Of Winnipeg Set For 4th Term In Office

WINNIPEG (CP) — Voters returned Mayor Stephen Juba to office for his fourth consecutive two-year term Wednesday with a landslide majority.

The 48-year-old businessman outpolled lawyer Robert Moffat 62,773 to 14,227 in the two-man race in Canada's fourth-largest city.

Mr. Moffat, 46, who called

Export Policy To Stay Same

OTTAWA (CP) — The government's policy on Canadian exports to Cuba, already hedged by controls and dwindling Cuban dollar resources, will not change as a result of the new international tension over Cuba, Trade Minister Hees said.

Cuba Dominates House Although Not On Agenda

OTTAWA (CP) — Though it wasn't on the agenda, Cuba dominated the deliberations of the House of Commons Wednesday.

The international crisis centred on the island in the Caribbean completely overshadowed a budget debate that was supposed to be the main order of business.

Angry members put 24 oral questions to the government on Cuba. They received brief, laconic replies, carefully phrased to avoid any possibility of exacerbating the situation.

The main disclosure came from Defence Minister Harkness who announced in answer to a question by Paul Hellyer (L-Toronto Trinity) that rotation of four army units between Canada and Germany has been postponed until the present situation is "clarified."

Some 8,300 soldiers and dependents are affected by the order.

Mr. Harkness also told the House that "certain precautionary military measures" have been taken in response to the Cuban crisis but he refused, under opposition questioning, to give details. This would not be in the public interest, said the defence minister.

Canada's position on the United States arms blockade of Cuba remained unclear.

'WOULD BE PRESUMPTION'
Prime Minister Diefenbaker passed up an opportunity to endorse the U.S. action when Opposition Leader Pearson asked him whether the government intended to associate Canada with the Organization of American States resolution giving it full support.

"... I think it would be presumption on my part to give the view of Canada with respect to an organization of which we have not been and are not now a member," replied the prime minister.

Later, outside the Commons, Mr. Pearson issued a statement saying Canada should give "all the support that is possible" to the U.S. position.

However, the opposition leader himself indicated he had some reservations about the blockade, stating: "We certainly must feel an anguished anxiety about the possible consequences of this action, in terms of nuclear destruction on our planet."

New Democratic Party House Leader H. W. Harkness expressed "deepest regret" at the unilateral American action, and "regret" at the establishment of Soviet missile bases in Cuba.

Mr. Pearson and Mr. Harkness outlined their positions with regard to the U.S. blockade in statements tied to United Nations Day. Mr. Diefenbaker had made a UN Day statement earlier at a moon ceremony in the rotunda of the Parliament Building.

Extra Emergency Funds To Meet Finance Crisis
WASHINGTON (AP) — A plan to provide the International Monetary Fund with additional emergency resources of $6,000,000 went into effect today. The money will be available for use in any major currency crisis.

The agreement became effective after Treasury Secretary Dillon formally notified the IMF that the United States has appropriated $2,000,000,000 as its share of the emergency pool to be supplied by 10 leading Western nations.

Under the plan, any of the 10 participating countries could borrow foreign currencies from the pool if it experienced a sudden and massive outflow of capital that posed a threat to the stability of its own currency.

The United States and other pool participants, while committing themselves to specific contributions, would supply actual funds only in the event of need. However, the U.S. commitment required a congressional appropriation which President Kennedy signed Tuesday.

Under the terms of the four-year agreement, the pool was to go into effect after total commitments reached $5,500,000,000. The U.S. appropriation actually boosted commitments to $5,650,000,000.

CO-OPERATIVES
Canadian co-operatives did $1,408,675,000 worth of business for the year ending July 31, 1960.

Five UBC Professors Hit U.S. In Anti-War Rally

VANCOUVER (CP) — Five professors at University of B.C. unanimously condemned recent United States action against Cuba at an "anti-war" rally here Wednesday.

A student bloc of thousands gave them a mixed reception. The rally was called by UBC's Nuclear Disarmament Club and the Students' Christian Movement. The audience packed in for 500 feet along the campus main mall. A smaller group later pushed in from behind a platform with placards that read: "Jackie Si — Cuba No. Castrate All Communies."

Some students lined the roof of the nearby chemistry building.

A student who spoke at the end of the rally was called a "Nazi" and had to duck three or four paper missiles and an apple core.

"The United States has acted contrary to international law," Dr. James Foulkes, head of the pharmacology department told the students. "We cannot oppose free access to Cuba—the same as we cannot condemn others to oppose our free access to West Berlin."

Dr. Robert Rowen of the department of philosophy said: "The extremity of the United States reaction to the creation of the missile bases in Cuba is out of all proportion to the military significance of these bases."

Michael Kournosoff, a lecturer in Slavonic studies, was called a communist as he spoke. He denied the charge.
